There is a $1 additional convenience fee for tickets purchased through Ticketmaster.

FREE Festival Surrounding Ballpark

A FREE festival will be held outside the Ballpark beginning at 4 p.m. and will featuring live local entertainment on our Community Stage – plus a Children's Expo, Hometown Hero exhibit, plus lots of business vendors, food, fun and a Fireworks Finale that rivals any in North Texas!

The Children's Expo will feature face painting, balloon artists, clowns, a Kid's Kookie walk and a row of bounce houses. Children will also enjoy interactive games provided by Major League Soccer's FC Dallas and junior league hockey's Texas Tornado – which both call Frisco 'home'.

Kids of all ages can also check out the Hometown Hero exhibit, which features cars, trucks and other equipment used by the Frisco Police and Fire Departments. McGruff and Sparky – along with Siren, Squirt, Smokey and Flash – our Fire Department Clowns. Don't forget to check out our vintage 1940 model Frisco Fire truck, too.

The evening will end with a 20-minute fireworks finale choreographed to patriotic music.

FREE Parking, Onsite and at Stonebriar Centre Mall, FREE Shuttles From Mall

FREE Parking is available onsite in the lot south of the Dr Pepper/Seven Up Ballpark and in the parking garage, adjacent to the Dr Pepper StarCenter. You can also park and walk from Stonebriar Centre Mall – which is just across the street from the festival – or board a FREE shuttle bus. Fisd busses will circle the mall, stopping at bus stops located near Dick's Sporting Goods, Sears, JC Pennys and Foleys. Look for the signs and large balloons – similar to what you find at auto dealerships.

For more information, check out www.friscofreedomfest.org Hope to see you there!
